Able to learn more in depth on fixed income financial instruments

Clear understanding

Good

Good understanding

Great outline

Is better to merge it to Year 2 subject bond with embedded option and structure

Lectures are well structured

Not much to comment on the subject

Not to be exaggerate, she is the best lecturer i have ever met in my degree. Good lecturer in all aspects.

The lecturer is friendly and nice

The subject are very detailed. Sometimes it does not make sense to me as I never experience the real life situation. Hopefully the subject could apply with more general and easy terms.

The subject helps me to learn how to construct a bond portfolio

Too many things to do for one subject, presentation, meeting with lecturer regarding outline for assignments, all required a lot of preparations and it is a little overwhelming as we need to cope with 6 assignments this semester.

Very patient in teaching us <3

all good

essential subject for course student

All the time motivated and inspired by Miss' life experiences and encourages me to push myself to a greater limit

Awesome lecturer

Dr Nur tends to teach us alot of knowledge outside the syllabus

Engaging with students, giving some short questions at the end of the class.

Good

Interact well with students and willing to share the knowledge and experience

Knowledgeable

Lecturer explained well

Lecturer is great and patience with us. Provide a lot examples and ideas for us during class.

Lecturer shared great extensive knowledge with the class and the knowledge a pretty beneficial for us

Lecturer was excellent, but no PPT is provided therefore discourage student learning.

Provide tutorial answer for reference purpose the

The real life examples and statistics are beneficial for us as a finance student.

The way of teacher explain and ask student to answer and to think more online exercises

one of the few lecturers that i can't sleep on, she really loves her students recommend to have more ppt for workshop and tutorial, rather than hand writing

she was very articulate
