Dear Dr Nur Ain,

Chan Chun Yu (student ID: 22124861) from BAF here.

As the semester comes to a close, I wanted to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude for your guidance throughout the Financial Institutions and Markets course. The engaging lectures and interactive tutorial groups have been instrumental in enhancing my understanding of the subject matter. I particularly want to extend my gratitude for the sessions where you randomly selected students to team up to respond to tutorial questions. As an introvert, this strategy allowed me to step out of my comfort zone and swiftly connect with new peers. Your warm demeanor and willingness to engage with students create an inclusive environment where I feel comfortable expressing my thoughts and asking questions. This has significantly reduced the tension I often associate with classes and exams. Hope that Dr. will not be too strict in assigning marks for the exam article question.

Once again, thank you. Wishing you all the best, Dr Nur!
